Monthly Financial Report ending April 30, 2025

Tyler Winningham addressed the Council stating that we were heading for a challenging year but that the issue is not unique to Conway, with other cities are experiencing the same downturn in sales taxes. He reported that Conway's sales tax in April was down 1.9% and 3.6% for the year. He added that the City budgeted for 3% growth in sales tax this year but if the trend continues sales tax revenues will be down 1.5 million by the end of the year. He said that other revenues could do better than expected citing Parks and Recreation as an example as well as the Airport fuel sales. He told the Council that there is still an active spending freeze, and all purchases are being evaluated. Mr. Winningham went over several project funds and their status. Councilwoman Isby made a motion to approve the monthly financials and Councilwoman Mehl seconded it. A vote was called and the motion to approve carried 8-0.
